IF ONLY IT WAS THIS EASY...

"And for my next trick...I will make myself disappear by January"

Wacky Fringe Left Quote

"We're going to have the best-educated American people in the world." - Vice President Al Gore, 9/21/97

(Well at least he supports education ... too bad his parents never did. - Ed.)

... 'cause Daddy's marriage tax is gonna take her from the penthouse to the poor house!

Sensible Fringe Left Quote?

- "I think it's so irritating that once I die, 55 percent of my money goes to the United States government . . . You know why that's so irritating? Because you already have paid nearly 50 percent. . . . when you leave like a house or you leave money to people, then they're taxed 55 percent, so you've got to leave them enough so that once they're taxed, they still have some money. . . . That's why you always hear about people where their aunts left them houses or left them stuff and they can't keep the house because the taxes are so much."

--Oprah Winfrey, 8/4/97, Oprah, Harpo Productions

THIS WEEK'S MEETING:

Former wartime bomber pilot, advertising agency founder, political consultant, White House Special Assistant, and current Chairman and CEO of the Motion Picture Association of America:

JACK VALENTI

Thursday, H-236 in the Capitol, at 10:00 AM

"My first priority would be to allow as much of the surplus to flow through into a reduction of debt to the public. If that proves politically infeasible, I would opt for cutting taxes.

"And under no conditions do I see any room in the longer-term outlook for major changes in expenditures."

Indiana House Passes Ten Commandments Bill

- On a 92-7 vote Monday, the Indiana House approved legislation allowing state agencies, including courthouses and public schools, to post the Ten Commandments in their buildings. The state Senate has approved a similar measure, and Democratic Gov. Frank O'Bannon has said he'll sign the bill if it's constitutional. Supporters say it is, since it stipulates that the commandments must be displayed "as part of an exhibit displaying other documents of historical significance that formed and influenced the United States' legal or governmental system." Supporters say posting the Ten Commandments may help Americans - especially young Americans - reset their moral compass by reminding them of the rules that have governed the Judeo-Christian world for many centuries. Nine other states are now debating proposals to "Hang Ten," as proponents say.
